(C) Any costs associated with such checks shall be paid by the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo.

(D) Identity of the name of the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo; or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo; or any person over the age of eighteen (18) who is living in the home of the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, and either such person's Social Security number or date of birth to the name and either the Social Security number or date of birth of the perpetrator of an incident of child abuse or neglect, or person who was subject to licensure suspension or revocation pursuant to section 210.496, RSMo, or defendant in a criminal offense shall be sufficient to find that the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo; or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo; or person over the age of eighteen (18) who is living in the home of the applicant is the same person who was found to have perpetrated the child abuse or neglect, or who was subject to licensure suspension or revocation pursuant to section 210.496, RSMo, or who committed the criminal offense. The applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, may present evidence to rebut this presumption. However, the presumption survives the presentation of such evidence and may be sufficient to find that the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, or person over the age of eighteen (18) who is living in the home of the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, is the same person who was found to have perpetrated the child abuse or neglect, or who was subject to licensure suspension or revocation pursuant to section 210.496, RSMo, or who committed the criminal offense despite the presentation of contrary evidence.

(3) Extenuating or Mitigating Circumstances. Upon completion of background checks required by this rule, the division shall give an applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, an opportunity to offer any extenuating or mitigating circumstances concerning adverse information found relating to findings of child abuse or neglect, licensure refusal or suspension, or criminal background checks against the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, or any person over the age of eighteen (18) who is living in the applicant's home. Such extenuation or mitigation may include, but is not limited to, the extent of the individual's participation in the abuse, neglect or offense; the length of time since the last incident of abuse, neglect or offense; the age of the person at the time of the abuse, neglect or offense; and remedial measures taken by the individual such as counseling, training, or therapy. In addition, the division may consider all information relating to any allegations of abuse or neglect including reports of investigation, if available. However, the fact that the report of investigation of an incident of abuse or neglect is no longer available, will not prevent the division from considering such a finding of abuse or neglect. Such a finding shall be considered along with any information the applicant wishes to present regarding the incident and any extenuating or mitigating information. Such extenuating or mitigating circumstances may be considered by the division in its determination whether to permit such applicant to receive state or federal funds for providing child care in the home.

(4) Family Care Safety Registry.

(A) The Family Care Safety Registry will contain criminal background information on only felony criminal offenses pursuant to Chapters 198, 334, 560, 565, 568, 569, 573,

575, and 578, RSMo (section 210.909.1(4), RSMo). Providers of in-home child care services are not eligible to receive state or federal funds if they or members of their household over the age of eighteen (18) have criminal records involving Chapters 565 (felonies or any offense involving the endangerment of a child), 566 (misdemeanors or felonies), 568 (misdemeanors or felonies), 573 (misdemeanors or felonies), any offense which would disqualify the applicant or recipient from receiving state or federal funds, or of any similar crimes in any federal, state or municipal court.

(B) Because in-home child care providers are ineligible to receive state or federal funds for a different range of criminal offenses (for example, certain misdemeanors and similar crimes in any federal, state or municipal court) than would be included in the Family Care Safety Registry, applicants for direct payment or reimbursement of in-home child care services and members of their household over the age of eighteen (18) will be required to sign a request for criminal background check by the Missouri State Highway Patrol. The costs associated with this check shall be paid by the applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo.

(5) Evidence. In determining whether there has been a finding of probable cause to suspect (or reason to suspect) that child abuse or neglect has been committed by an applicant, pursuant to section 210.025, RSMo, or a recipient, pursuant to section 210.027, RSMo, or a person over the age of eighteen (18) living in the applicant's home, the following shall be considered in evidence in making such determination:

(A) The letter, or a copy of the letter, from the Division of Family Services to the subject stating that there was probable cause to suspect (or reason to suspect) that the subject had committed child abuse or neglect;

(B) The letter, or a copy of the letter, from the Child Abuse and Neglect Review Board to the subject affirming the decision of the Division of Family Services which found that there was probable cause to suspect (or reason to suspect) that the subject had committed child abuse or neglect;

(C) A computer printout documenting either that the Division of Family Services made a probable cause (or reason to suspect) finding that child abuse or neglect occurred or that the Child Abuse and Neglect Review Board affirmed such finding which is otherwise authenticated pursuant to Chapter 490, RSMo, or with regard to which authentication is waived; or

(D) Any order, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction which found that the subject committed child abuse or neglect.

(E) The fact that any documentation regarding a finding of abuse or neglect, including but not limited to the report of investigation, cannot be found or has been destroyed shall not prevent that finding of abuse (otherwise documented in written or electronic form) from being considered by the division.

(6) Child Abuse or Neglect Findings. For purposes of disqualification, probable cause findings to suspect that child abuse or neglect occurred and reason to suspect findings that child abuse or neglect occurred shall be considered synonymous.

(7) All providers of child care services in the home pursuant to this rule shall be at least eighteen (18) years old, i.e., such providers must have attained their eighteenth birthday.

(8) If there are no local ordinances or regulations regarding smoke detectors which apply to the location where the provider will be providing child care services in the home, providers must install and maintain smoke detectors as follows:

(A) Structures Included. Smoke detectors shall be provided in all structures occupied by children in connection with child care services in the home.

(B) Location.

1. A detector shall be mounted on the ceiling or wall at a point centrally located in a corridor or other area giving access to rooms used for providing child care services in the home unless the manufacturer's instructions provide otherwise, then in accordance with those instructions.

2. All detectors shall be located in accordance with approved manufacturer's instructions. When actuated, the detectors shall provide an alarm in the structure or room.

(C) Duties.

1. It shall be the duty of the provider of child care services in the home regulated by this section to provide an operable smoke alarm system.
